

Steven Cole

Director of Music & Worship Arts

I'd like to take this opportunity to remind parents that our children spend a few minutes each Wednesday evening working on worship songs, and we plan to hear from them again in our Sunday morning worship services very soon. The kids joined us in worship a handful of times through the fall, and it's always great to have them be a part of worship leadership. Now that we're settled into the new semester, they should be joining us in worship again in the very near future.

The goal is for kids to sing new songs that, eventually, are learned by the entire church family and become a part of worship life repertoire here at First Baptist. They taught us Only a God Like You (a personal favorite) last fall, and titles for this spring include Salt and Light and You Are Holy. Their singing is a part of Bible Skills, Thrills and Drills on Wednesday evenings from 6:30-7:30 pm. In addition to memorizing Scripture, kids are learning Scripture-based songs that will, hopefully, help them remember some of the stories and passages they encounter across their childhoods. If your child(ren) hasn't been attending, we'd love to have them any and every Wednesday night.

Deacon's Corner

If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. John 12:26

The deacons of First Baptist Church are committed to working hard to meet the needs of our church this coming year. Each month, we would like to report to the church some of the deacon's activities. If you know of anyone needing a visit or assistance, call Dale Heagwood or the church office.

Tree cut down and hauled off from a widow's house. Bob Fielding visited the deacons meeting on 1/8/12 and challenged the deacons.

Reported Nursing Home Visit - 7 residents
Reported Hospital Visits - 4 church members
Deacons and other members sat with sick member of church.

Several widows & widowers were visited during the month of January.

If a Deacon has helped you and you would like to recognize him or if you are in need of a visit or assistance, please call the church office at 870-642-2151 or email us at firstbaptistdequeen@windstream.net
